

CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANIZATIONS AND PARTICIPATION MECHANISMS

There is an evidently greater awareness among civil society organizations about participation mechanisms such as the Council for Cooperation between the Government and Civil Society and sector working groups within competent ministries. In particular, high 84% of surveyed organizations have heard about the Council for Cooperation between the Government and Civil Society, while most of them (54%) are aware of sector working groups within competent ministries.

Have you heard about and are you familiar with the Council for Cooperation between the Government and Civil Society?

Have you heard about and are you familiar with sector working groups?

