

DECREASED NUMBER OF CITIZENS WHO HAVE PARTICIPATED IN CIVIC INITIATIVES

Participation of citizens in civic initiatives is marked by a decreasing trend in 2021. Namely, 9 out of 10 citizens have not participated in any type of civic initiatives aimed at improving their town/village of North Macedonia.

The survey was conducted on national representative sample comprised of 1300 respondents with $\pm 2\%$ margin of error. Data are part of the survey research "Civic Engagement in the Republic of North Macedonia 2020-2021-2022".
